HOLTON has promised to overhaul Virginia's $1.5 billion dollar government, to save taxpayers in Virginia up to $100 million in the next biennium. A personal friend of President Richard M. Nixon, Linwood Holton will surely be able to get a fair shake for Virginia at the White House. Holton opposes the Constitutional provision which would allow the General Assembly to abandon pay-as-you-go fiscal policies by obligating millions of dollars without voter approval in a statewide referendum. He opposes secrecy in our state government which has led to inefficiency and conflict of interest. He is the only candidate who has proposed any tax relief for Virginia taxpayers.

Battle is a liberal Democrat who is obligated to the national Democratic Party. He is a personal friend of the Kennedy clan and would turn over Virginia to his pals if elected. Battle favors giving the General Assembly power to borrow millions of dollars regardless of what the people say. He is the man who says he would not hesitate to raise taxes in a state where spending and your taxes have doubled in the last four years. He has absolutely no program of providing savings in operations of government and no program for tax relief.

DAWBARN a successful industrialist who started as an hourly worker, State Senator Buz Dawbarn would put Virginia's government on a businesslike basis. A former Democrat who managed Albertis Harrison's campaign in Waynesboro in 1961, Senator Dawbarn switched to the conservative Republican Party when he saw liberals taking over the Democratic Party. He was a Goldwater chairman in 1964.

Reynolds the son of a millionaire industrialist, Reynolds managed election to the Virginia General Assembly using Kennedy tactics ... that of using high sums of money and appealing to labor unions and Negro voting blocs. He was state chairman of "Young Men for Johnson" in 1964. A liberal by his own admission, if successful this year, it has been rumored that he will oppose Senator Harry F. Byrd Jr.

OBENSHAIN Dick Obenshain is a conservative Richmond attorney who nearly was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives six years ago. He was one of Barry Goldwater's strongest supporters in 1964 and supported Richard Nixon in '68. He would provide more legal assistance to the state's rural counties if elected.

Miller Andrew Miller, the son of a bitter political enemy of our own Harry Byrd years ago, was a close associate of Teddy Kennedy in law school. He was Hubert Humphrey's 9tn Disrict camnaign forces in southwest Virginia.

Buz Dawbarn

How long has it been since you had a real voice in your government? "BUZ" says you can't have a voice unless you know what's going on. That's why he wants to put an end to secrecy in government. Let's open State government to the people.

"BUZ" WILL BE YOUR VOICE IN RICHMOND

Plans Bond Sale

The Board of Directors of Virginia Electric and Power Co. today announced tentative plans to sell in public offerings approximately $70 - $80 million of common stock on March 10, 1970. In addition, the company tentatively proposes to sell $80 - $90 million of First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds on April 21, 1970.

The proceeds of these two issues will be used to finance in part the proposed $298 million construction program required in 1970 to meet growing customer demands. This is the highest construction expenditure in Vepco's history. In 1969 the company will spend approximately $257.8 million for new facilities.

Final decision as to whether the sales will be in negotiated transactions or at competitive biddings has not been made, according to Erwin H. Vill, chairman of the board.
